

Lophomyrtus × ralphii Kathryn

www.headgardenerplants.co.uk

After 5 years
Height: 1.8m
Width: 1.5m

Treat Yourself -
Treat Your Garden

A cracking evergreen from New Zealand.

This is a very special plant in our garden. It's deep purple pucker-edged foliage is distinctive and glossy and it stands proud all year round. We have it growing in part shade in well drained soil. It has pretty white flowers in summer followed by dark red berries. It needs a warm sheltered spot.